

Hypnotic pan-European melodies and modern dance rhythms.

Heavy beatbox, wild fiddle, lush harmonies. Threads of tradition spun into evocative new stories.

USHTI BABA deliver a fierce fresh perspective while paying warm tribute to their trad folk roots.

The Bristol 7-piece has been tearing up venues and festivals at home and abroad since 2013, with countless prominent slots across the UK and Europe. They've enjoyed primetime radio play on BBC 6 Music and received the remix treatment from infamous producer Youth.

“Guaranteed to raise the dust and leave no blade untrod... Killer festival heroes.”

Chris Tofu, Director: Continental Drifts

“An effervescent live performance.”

Geoff Dixon, Director: WoW Festival

“You are so blinking good you make my eyes bleed.”

Chris Brown, Boomtown Fair Town Crier

“Simply blew the place apart. Their sheer energy and joy in their music is matched by their musicianship.”

Rachael Clarke, Director: Priddy Folk Festival

“Had the crowd eating out their hand. Well recommended.”

Adam Curtis, Director: Eden Festival

“Make some space, you might need it as you flail around!”

Chris Hawkins, BBC 6 Music
